Pastoral Letter to the Benefice from Stuart Burns

Dear Friends,

It's just after Remembrance Day and I'm writing for Christmas! Part of Fred Niven's poem "A Carol from Flanders" comes to mind:

*Between the trenches then they met, shook hands, and e'en did play
At games on which their hearts were set, on happy Christmas Day
Oh ye who read this truthful rime From Flanders, kneel and say:
God speed the time when every day shall be as Christmas Day.*

This poem recounts the story of the spontaneous 1914 Christmas truce along the lines of the Western front. The deep human desire to reach out and embrace even one's enemies gave a day's respite from the carnage ordered by the generals. Instinctive decency rose above the arrogance, power-hunger and sinfulness of the human heart which can bring about terrible wars.

Remembrance Day this year was a peculiar juxtaposition of sadness and thanksgiving, reflecting on both the loss of loved ones but also on the ending of the Great War. It is perhaps with poignancy that we celebrate Christmas this year, just after the centenary of the Armistice. However, we have also just hosted a wonderful "Celebrate! World Music and Food" event in our benefice, when people seeking asylum in our country shared their lovely music and food with many of us in our parishes. People were deeply moved by encountering in each other, across cultural divides, a common humanity and the desire for friendship.

If we allow the Prince of Peace, the Lord Jesus Christ to work in our own hearts, we can surely:-

Kindle and fan within each of us the flame of the human warmth and friendship we experienced at Celebrate!

Affirm the Armistice, 100 years later, by seeking to be people who make peace within our families and communities, and

Do our bit to answer the prayer in the poem above, "God speed the time when every day shall be as Christmas Day."

On behalf of our churches and the Ministry Team, I wish you and your family a very peaceful and joyful Christmas, and a really hopeful New Year.

Letter from The Right Reverend Ruth Worsley, Bishop of Taunton

God with us

Well, we are into the frantic pressie-buying month of December now. The American ‘Black Friday’ tradition appears to be firmly a part of our own pattern and has brought the search for the perfect Christmas present yet earlier in our calendar. Parish and school Christmas Fayres offer us home-made, Fairtrade, recycled and singular alternatives. And increasingly the inequalities within our economy become more apparent as people risk debt to bring smiles to their children’s faces.

When I was a parish priest we found that many of our single parents felt trapped by the pressure of keeping up with those around them. We tried to introduce a maximum spend for all our congregational and family present buying in order to bring some parity. It wasn’t easy!

I’m reminded at this time of year of the line that we are seeing more frequently, accompanying invitations to weddings and Birthday parties: ‘No presents required, just your presence!’

It makes me think about what Christmas really means. During this time of preparation and waiting for the big day to arrive, many of us will sing the words of that Advent hymn, ‘O come, O come, Emmanuel’, a 12th century hymn that invites God to fulfil his prophecy to his people. Will we really take in those words?

‘Emmanuel’ means ‘God with us’, such an important and comforting phrase in these times of uncertainty and anxiety, as we wonder what the new year will bring.

Christmas we know is a time when people can feel lonely, stressed and disappointed. There are reputedly more suicides and marriage breakdowns during the course of this holiday period. One of the best Christmas presents we can offer then must surely be that of hospitality, a listening ear and simply our ‘presence’ among those who feel forgotten, rejected or overlooked.

In so doing we will find God’s own present to us this Christmas, as in any and all other Christmases, His presence. The God to whom “every animal of the forest and the cattle on a thousand hills belongs” (Psalm 50) has given us the best present of all - He is with us.

Harvest Donations - Thank you

Dear Friends at Draycott church & school- thank you so much for your deliveries of food for our Harvest Appeal, and for your kind donation of £232*. We are so grateful for this generous contribution to the help we give to so many people in this area.

The many donations we receive have enabled us to hand out over 7000 carrier bags of food to our callers so far this year, to people with a range of needs, including: single parent families, the elderly, the homeless, people living with addictions, refugees, asylum seekers, and many who struggle on benefits or whose benefits have been delayed. On behalf of those we support, thank you once again

This was the total of the Draycott Harvest Festival (curry night), and from individual donations including the school harvest festival (CG).*

CHRISTMAS APPEAL 2018

Dear Friends and supporters - Our special Christmas bags are a sign of God's love and of the generosity and care of many churches and individuals. Last year we were able to distribute 420 Christmas bags. We particularly need:

Food: Boxes of chocolates, festive biscuits, tins of ham, meat or salmon, mince pies, Christmas puddings, and jars of instant coffee.

Gifts: Both men and women- gloves, scarves, toiletries & toiletry sets.

Children: For the past three years we have asked for money donations so that we can give a £10 Argos voucher per child to families that we know are in need. Last year we gave out 200, and would like to be able to do the same this year.

Additional needs- As well as bulk buying food throughout the year, we use some donated funds to top up the gas and electricity meter keys of some of our most vulnerable callers and their families. We occasionally help out with household items.

We are so grateful to everyone who enables our ministry to continue. THANK YOU!

With our love and blessings as ever- sr. Rosina CSC and sr Teresa Mary CSC.

A collection will go from St. Peter's again this year. Contributions need to be with us by the end of Sunday 2nd December- at the church, or to The Old Forge, Stoke Street, Rodney Stoke. Or phone and we will collect from you- 01749 870554

Music Matters

Celebration concert in Draycott

The concert to celebrate the reopening of the organ was given on Thursday evening 25 October by the distinguished organist Malcolm Archer. He has been cathedral organist in Bristol, Wells and St Paul's London, and now in his retirement spends his time teaching and composing. We are very honoured to have him give his time to visiting this village and this tiny organ.

Malcolm had chosen his programme to fit the capabilities of the instrument. He started with the well-known Toccata and Fugue in D minor by Bach, which many people might vote their favourite organ music. It was probably intended by Bach as a test piece for newly-built organs, to show whether they had good lungs and an action with fast responses – I think ours passed the test!

Malcolm went on to a group of little pieces by Haydn, written for the mechanisms of various clock-organs, which were a very popular invention in the 18th century. These pieces delightfully showed us the varied delicate stops that this organ provides. He played a couple of his own engaging compositions, and perhaps most memorably of all a prelude based on the tune Abide with me by Parry, who died just 100 years ago. The concert finished with Boëllmann's famous Gothic Suite. The lovely Prayer to Notre Dame sounded really rich and expressive, though I have to say that the loud movements of this big French suite could ideally have done with more crash and clash of tone than our organ can provide.

The audience was entranced throughout the concert, and spent the interval questioning the organists and Brian and Liam the organ-builders about the work that has been done to safeguard this instrument for the next sixty years. Over £450 was raised in the retiring collection towards the organ fund. Our grateful thanks both to Malcolm Archer and to Barry, who organised the evening.

A huge Thank You.....

.....Celebrate! World Food and Music

This is a huge thank you to everyone who came and helped to make 'Celebrate! World Food and Music' in Draycott Memorial Hall such an unforgettable occasion. Everyone did their bit and, for me, it was a powerful affirmation of many of the things that bind us all together as humanity.

Did you have any particular stand-out moments? Mine were:

- the sheer beauty of Salvo's daughter's voice rising so clearly above the drums
- the powerful, eloquent testimony of our Kurdish chef as he recounted how he came to be with us and the challenges he still faces
- clearing up the waste food afterwards for composting and realising there were no pot scrapings or plate leavings to speak of – just peelings and outer leaves. We had simply eaten the lot!
- The way, at the end of the evening, the audience pitched in and set about cleaning up the hall. I had half expected to be there easily into the early hours but it was all done and dusted well before half past midnight. We could have had another half hour of Dragonsfly.....

The icing on the cake, is that we have been able to send a sizeable cheque to Bristol Hospitality Network as our contribution towards their work of filling in the gaps in asylum support. It is sufficient to provide a hostel place for one destitute asylum seeker for more than a year,

Thank you again.

National Parish Magazine Awards 2018

I bet you would be as surprised as I was to find out that there is an Annual National Parish Magazines Award competition. Doesn't it sound a bit like something straight out of an episode of 'Father Ted'. But, after a bit of reflection, I decided to have a go and put our magazine into the competition.

I am often dubious about the benefits of league tables and their ilk when it comes to assessing the relative merits of places like schools and hospitals and I ask why, if they are such a good idea, don't the powers-that-be have them for the likes of Government Ministers and MPs? But it is always enlightening to know how you stack up against the others in your field - and curiosity did kill the cat.

So how did we do? The answer is 48th out of a field of over 400 entrants. Not bad for a first attempt—or even just below the half way point in the premier league—but some room for improvement too.

It is always good to see a brand new tradition in the making and Honor's annual Rodney Stoke Christmas Card, sold in aid of Parish Funds, fits the bill to a tee.

This year, as shown above, it features Daisy, that unusually vocal member of our community with a knowing look and a lot to live up to as successor to the famous Honk. The Joy of Giving

Somehow, not only for Christmas,
But all the long year through,
The joy that you give to others,
Is the joy that comes back to you.
And the more you spend in blessing
The poor and lonely and sad,
The more of your heart's possessing
Returns to you glad.

Home phone	01934 743649
Please note: Stuart's home tel number has a call-screening facility to stop nuisance calls; the system asks you to say your name and then press # and wait briefly ; Stuart then hears who it is and allows the call which adds your name so that next time you will go straight through; please bear with this; once added the first time you won't have to be 'processed' again! There is also an answering machine on this number.
